

Beaufort County NC

Real Property Revaluation

A field lister has visited your property

All counties in North Carolina are required to conduct a Revaluation of all Real Property every 8 years or less.

Our next revaluation is for 2025. In an effort to make sure property is correctly valued, field listers are making visits to all properties in the county to visually confirm the data on our property records.

<https://co.beaufort.nc.us/238/Tax-Assessor>

revalemail@co.beaufort.nc.us

Beaufort County NC

Real Property Revaluation

The Beaufort County Assessor's Office website has "property record" information accessed through the property assessment link . This information is accurate as of the current tax year and we encourage property owners to review this data and let us know if it is incorrect

<https://co.beaufort.nc.us/238/Tax-Assessor>

252 - 946 - 7981